Phoenix Cooks! Raises over $22,000 for Phoenix Children's Hospital

September 25, 2009

Several thousand Valley residents enjoyed Clear Channel Radio's Phoenix Cooks! event raising over $22,000 for Phoenix Children's Hospital.

"In its 5th year, Phoenix Cooks! delivered an action-packed day of foodie fun, September 5th of Labor Day weekend. Three Kitchen Performance Stages and more than 50 of the Valley's best chefs and restaurants sampled delectable treats with an array of wine, beer and spirit tasting throughout our new venue, the Westin Kierland Resort. Clear Channel Radio Personalities hosted the day's activities while helping raise money for Phoenix Children's Hospital. Phoenix Cooks! is Arizona's Premier Culinary Event and each year it just gets better for our guests and sponsors!" states Leyla Hauptert, Director of Integrated Media for Clear Channel Radio and Phoenix Cooks! creator.

"Phoenix Cooks! is designed for the ultimate food and wine enthusiast - people who want to learn and taste what's happening in the food industry, the newest products, improve their cooking skills, sample restaurant's signature dishes, try new wines and spirits and/or just want to participate in a day of culinary fun!" says Hauptert.

Over the last five years, Phoenix Cooks! has generated nearly $100,000 for Phoenix Children's Hospital.

To help us underwrite this event, we have some great sponsors which include: Westar Kitchen and Bath, Viking, Dacor, GE Monogram, Whole Foods Market, Camelback Toyota, Airpark Dodge-Chrysler-Jeep, Van Chevrolet, SRP, Republic Monetary Exchange plus so many more!

Mark your calendars now for the Saturday of Labor Day Weekend next year, September 4; we will be celebrating our 6th annual Phoenix Cooks!
