

For immediate release

Sept. 8, 2010

KNX Business Breakfast Opens Doors to Small Business Ideas

(Los Angeles, CA) – A panel of successful business owners and entrepreneurs will take center stage at the next event in the KNX Business Breakfast Series, presented by KNX 1070 NEWSRADIO. “Financing Your Business” will take place on Thursday, Sept. 16 at 7:30 a.m. in Hollywood. The event is free with advance online registration.

Bob McCormick, the host of KNX’s Money 101, will moderate a panel discussion on how to raise capital for a new business with or without investors. This discussion will be followed by a special session entitled “What’s Your Business Idea?” Attendees will have the unique opportunity to present their business ideas to our esteemed investors and entrepreneurs who will provide instant feedback and guidance.

The panel of experts will include Dan Bliss, co-founder of PerfectBusiness.com; Natalie Orta, Chief of Economic Development for the Los Angeles district office of the U.S. Small Business Administration; C. Bryce Benjamin, who serves on the board of directors for Tech Coast Angels, the largest angel investor organization in the country; and David Marshall, owner of Santa Monica Capital Partners.

Frank Mottek, host of the KNX Business Hour, will lend his expertise and serve as emcee of the event which will include a resource expo, networking opportunities and a continental breakfast.

Admission is free to the public but registration is required to reserve limited seating. Information, as well as the registration form, is available at BusinessBreakfastLA.com. The event will take place at The Annex on the fifth floor of the Hollywood & Highland complex at 6801 Hollywood Boulevard.

Contact: Howard Freshman 323-964-8340 hfreshman@cbs.com