

"KTU'S Beatstock 2005" Heats Up LI & NJ with Two Nights of the Hottest & Best Dance Music This Summer

Line Up Announced for Jones Beach & PNC Shows

New York, July 12, 2005 (NYSE: CCU) – Clear Channel Radio's The Beat of New York, 103.5fm The New KTU (WKTU-FM), continues to bring the hottest and best dance music to the tri-state area with its annual summer concert "KTU'S BEATSTOCK 2005." Back by popular demand, KTU will heat up the summer for two sizzling nights in two states with over 30,000 people - Saturday, August 20th at the Tommy Hilfiger At Jones Beach Theater in Wantagh, NY and Sunday, August 21st at the PNC Bank Arts Center in Holmdel, NJ.

KTU's Beatstock 2005 star studded lineup includes: Pussycat Dolls ("Don't Cha"), Reina ("If I Close My Eyes"), Kelly Osbourne ("One World"), Narcotic Thrust ("I Like It"), Sylver ("All This Time") along with freestyle performances from Cynthia ("Change On Me"), Lissette Melendez ("Together Forever"), TKA ("Tears May Fall"), Rockell ("What U Did 2 Me ") Coro ("Can't Let You Go") and many more.

Tickets are on sale now to the general public through www.Ticketmaster.com and Ticketmaster Charge by Phone (201-507-8900, 516-888-9000, 212-307-7171 and 914-454-3388). Ticket prices and limits vary per location. Both events are a Vito Bruno Production.

Owned and operated by Clear Channel Communications, Inc., WKTU 103.5 FM is New York's top-rated rhythmic music station with more than 2 million listeners per week. Additional information on the station including upcoming events and air personalities is available on the Web at www.ktu.com.