Pet Expo Announced for September!

Wednesday, August 20, 2008, Cleveland, Ohio. Pet Expo is a two day pet-centric event that will take place September 20th and 21st at the Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds located at 164 Eastland Road in Berea from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M.

The Petsmart Arena will feature Purina's "Incredible Dog Team" performing several shows each day.

The Banfield the Pet Hospital Arena will host "Ask The Vet" seminars by Banfield the Pet Hospital (the hospital located inside Petsmart locations), Pet First Aid and Emergency Preparedness by the American Red Cross of Greater Cleveland, Narcotic and Explosive Demonstrations by the Tenable Canine Division, a special presentation by Cleveland's own Jungle Terry for the kids, and a brown-and-orange dawg costume contest judged by Cleveland Browns mascot "CB." Best costume will win a pair of tickets to the October 13th game!

Pet Expo will also include a pet salon from Adam the Groomer and row after row of exhibitors displaying their pet products and services.

Admission is five dollars at the door with children five and under free. The event takes place indoors and will be held rain or shine. Parking is free and concessions will be available on site.

The public is permitted to bring their own dog to the event, providing that they fill out a release form. The form is available online or at the door during the event.
