

Clear Channel and Mira Productions Press Release

For Immediate Release

Mix 106.5 FM Patriot Party Advanced Tickets on Sale

Monday, August 18, 2008, Cleveland, Ohio...The Mix 106.5 Patriot Party is a tribute to our first responders; the men and women in law enforcement, firefighters, EMS, and all branches of the military. The concert will take place on Friday, September 5 at Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds located at 164 Eastland Road in Berea, Ohio. Gates will open at 4:00 P.M., music will begin at approximately 5:00 P.M. and end at approximately 10:30 P.M.

CEO of Tenable Protective Services, Peter J. Miragliotta, stated, "Patriot Party is meant to honor our first responders and to remember the victims of September 11. On December 18, 2001, President Bush and Congress declared September 11 as Patriot Day to honor those heroes. We are inspired by heroes everyday and this is an effective way to give back to the community to show our appreciation."

This year's artist lineup features Lou Gramm of Foreigner, local 80's cover band The Breakfast Club, and Brian & Joe with their band, The Endorsements.

Tickets are $30.00 the day of the show. Children age five and under are free. Tickets are also available online in advance for $20.00. In addition, tickets are available at WMVX "ticket stops" until the day before the show. These ticket stops are at locations throughout the Greater Cleveland area during specified times. Visit the Mix 106.5 website www.wmvx.com to purchase tickets online or find information on the ticket stop locations and times.

Current or former members of the military and current or retired members of law enforcement will have the opportunity to buy one ticket at the regular price of $30.00 and get a second ticket free the day of the show. This special buy one get one free discount is also offered at all ticket stops at the ticket stop price of $15.00. Valid government identification is required.
