Mardit comes to town Trace Adkins follows...

Appleton, WI: 99.5 The WOLF, WPKR-FM is pleased to announce that they are bringing Country music star Trace Adkins to perform at the Fox Cities Stadium on August 16th. Opening acts will include Restless Heart, Blackhawk, and The Outlaws.

Barry Mardit, Program Director of the Wolf says, "Our partnership with AppleJam Concerts to bring this country music superstar to Appleton/Oshkosh is a great opportunity for Country Fans in Northeast Wisconsin!" The show is part of the Time Warner Cable Concert series co-sponsored by US Bank, Miller Brewing and WFRV-TV.

Adkins, a native of Louisiana, is promoting his latest album, American Man, Greatest Hits Volume II, which features the hit songs "Ladies Love Country Boys" and "You're Gonna Miss This". Besides his extensive country music resume, which includes the 2005 smash hit "Honky Tonk Badonkadonk," Adkins was the runner-up on the NBC show The Celebrity Apprentice earlier this year.
