ABOUT TIËSTO

Tiësto is a performer who has transcended musical genres to create a global "Tiësto" brand. His achievements include: a Grammy nomination, numerous MTV awards, performing at the opening ceremony of the 2004 Athens Olympic Games to an audience of billions, and even a wax statue at Madame Tussauds. With over 15 million friends on Facebook, 2 million followers on Twitter, over 400 million views (and one million subscribers) on YouTube, his globally syndicated Club Life radio show as well as his Club Life iTunes artist podcast (#1 music podcast globally), Tiësto has truly become a universal phenomenon. Voted 'The Greatest DJ Of All Time' by Mixmag in 2011, the #1 DJ by Rolling Stone and recipient of DJ Mag's first ever "Top 100 DJs Legend Award," Tiësto has worked with superstars such as Kanye West, Bono, Coldplay, Katy Perry, Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Goldfrapp and many more.

ABOUT AFROJACK

Voted one of the world's top ten DJ's in the UK's influential DJ Mag Top 100 list, Afrojack also placed seventh in Forbes magazine's 2013 list of "World's Highest Paid DJs." In the colorful extended-length cover story of the new [October] issue of DJ Mag, entitled "The Phenomenal Rise Of Afrojack," he told writer Ian Roullier, "I feel that I'm just on the same journey as EDM. I was there at the right time in America to see it all happen and grow with it. I was one of the first DJs that ever got booked in Vegas and to see it grow so exponentially, it's just beautiful to be part of it. The only role I see for myself is being one of the few guys who really does not give a crap about genre or style and just [cares] about the music."

ABOUT LIL JON

Lil Jon is a rapper, producer and DJ best known for performing and promoting a style of hip-hop called "crunk." After working at a record label in Atlanta, he was the lead rapper with the group Lil Jon & The Eastside Boyz from 1997 to 2004. He began a solo career in 2010, and has appeared on television's The Celebrity Apprentice. He continues to work as a club DJ with appearances in Los Angeles, Florida, New York and residencies in Las Vegas. He is also a co-owner of the record label Black Market Entertainment. In December 2013, Lil Jon collaborated with DJ Snake and released "Turn Down for What" on Columbia Records. In January 2014, the single entered the top 5 on the Dance/Electronic chart and debuted No. 38 on Billboard's Hot 100.
