PITTSBURGH – The KDKA High School Tour continues November 14 with mid-day personality Mike Pintek broadcasting his 12:00 PM and 3:00 PM show live from Woodland Hills High School in Churchill, PA. It's the second stop on the four school tour which kicked off October 3rd at Upper St. Clair High School.

The High School Tour is a chance for KDKA to talk with students in different areas of our region about current events and the issues that affect them. Some of the topics Pintek has focused on are social media concerns, bullying, texting while driving as well as events in the current news cycle. The schools select students that participate in the broadcast.

It is also an opportunity to highlight events and activities happening within the school districts. Pintek elicits the perspective of the school's superintendent, principal or other faculty during the broadcast.

Blackhawk High School in Beaver Falls is on the docket for an upcoming High School Tours broadcast. Details on the KDKA High School Tour program are available at KDKA.com.
