KFDI Listener Appreciation Show Lineup Announced Free performances by Jerrod Niemann, Greg Bates and The Henningsens.

Wichita, Kan. — KFDI is proud to present Kansas' own Jerrod Niemann as the headliner at the station's annual listener appreciation show at Koch Arena on April 27. He will be joined by Greg Bates and also The Henningsens. All tickets to the show are free.

Niemann debut album, "Judge Jerrod & the Hung Jury," was released in 2010 and included the #1 single "Lover, Lover" and the top five hit "What Do You Want." His second album, "Free the Music," was released last year and included the top 20 hit "Shinin' on Me."

Bates' first single "Did It for the Girl," debuted at number 57 on the Hot Country Songs in April 2012, the same month he made his Grand Ole Opry debut. A second single from the album, "Fill in the Blank," was released in February.

The country music trio The Henningsens includes Brian Henningsen, his son Aaron and daughter Clara. They've written songs for The Band Perry, Wynonna Judd, Sara Evans and Highway 101.

More information on the show and free tickets to the event is available at kfdi.com.

Today's KFDI FM 101.3, along with Classic Country 92.3 FM (KFTI-FM), Radio Lobo KYQQ 106.5, T95 (KICT-FM), True Oldies 1070 AM (KLIO-AM) and KFXJ-FM 104.5 The Fox, FM are owned by Journal Broadcast Group.
