AM570 FOX SPORTS LOS ANGELES HOSTS WEEKEND OF LISTENER EVENTS INCLUDING MEET & GREET WITH DODGERS GENERAL MANAGER DON MATTINGLY

LOS ANGELES, January 14, 2013 – This weekend, AM570 FOX Sports Los Angeles treated listeners to a live broadcast of Petros & Money featuring Dodgers General Manager Don Mattingly, as well as an all-expenses-paid trip to Las Vegas for an AM570 FOX Sports LA Poker Tournament, with a surprise visit from FOX Sports Radio overnight host J.T. The Brick.

On Friday afternoon, Mattingly joined Petros & Money “Inside the Locker Room” for the entire 3 p.m. – 4 p.m. local hour of the show, along with fifty listeners who were invited to watch the live broadcast and enjoy a meet-and-greet with Mattingly following the appearance. During the interview, Mattingly discussed spring training, why he left the game to move into management, and Tommy Lasorda’s love for Dodger blue.

On Saturday, eight lucky listeners were invited to the AM570 FOX Sports LA Poker Tournament at the Golden Nugget in Las Vegas. The all-expenses-paid trip included airfare, hotel, inclusion in the tournament and a $570 credit at the casino. J.T. The Brick stopped by the poker table to pose for pictures and meet the winners.

Below is a highlight from Mattingly’s interview, as well as an audio link and photos from the events:

On Tommy Lasorda:

Mattingly: “I went to go see Carl Crawford in Houston the other day and we were talking about Tommy, and he goes, ‘Tommy made it really clear that we have to beat the Giants.’ Tommy’s great. He’s one of the best guys. I think from the outside you look at Tommy and you go, ‘I’m not buying all this Dodger blue sky, all the stuff, it’s kind of like over the top.’ But when you meet Tommy, it’s so sincere, the love that he has for this organization and for this city...it’s great to be around that to be honest with you.”
