Ed Sheeran

Ed Sheeran burst on the American scene in 2012 when Alice @ 97.3 became the first Hot AC station in America to play his first single, "The A Team." Not only were we the first to play it, we were also the first station that Ed ever heard his own music on in America (and he has the tattoo to prove it!) That record "+" featuring "The A Team" debuted at # 5 in America, and his follow-up record "x" (featuring "Sing", "Don't," and "Thinking Out Loud") debuted at #1 in America in June 2014. Alice @ 97.3 is thrilled to welcome Ed Sheeran back to the Bay, December 4th for Alice in Winterland 2014!

Train

Train are as Alice –and as San Francisco – as one band could possibly be. Their history of huge radio hits is intertwined with their San Francisco radio home, Alice @ 97.3, and their latest record "Bulletproof Picasso" shows that they are, as singer Pat Monahan says, only getting started. With hits like "Hey Soul Sister," "Drive By," "50 Ways to Say Goodbye" all the way back to "Drops of Jupiter" our friends in multi-platinum TRAIN are the perfect choice to celebrate the holidays in the Bay – and to play Alice in Winterland 2014.

Christina Perri

Starting with "Jar of Hearts" and all the way through every single since then, Alice @ 97.3 has been the first radio station ever to play each and every one of Christina Perri's songs on the radio. After bursting on the scene through "So You Think You Can Dance" Christina has become a shining star in her own right - and whether it's with "A Thousand Years" from the Twilight "Breaking Dawn" soundtrack, one of her solo smashes, or her duet with Ed Sheeran "Be my Forever" – Alice @97.3 is proud to be, as Christina herself calls us, her "radio home!"
