KTTH Hosts Sold Out Freedom Series on Gun Rights

Panel Discussion Focuses on the Second Amendment with Ben Shapiro, Michael Medved, KIRO Radio's Dave Ross, and
President of "Washington CeaseFire!" Ralph Fascitelli

SEATTLE, WA – KTTH AM 770 will host the third Freedom Series on the polarizing battle over gun rights. This panel will be hosted at the Pigott Auditorium at Seattle University on October 22, 2014, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The event is sold out.

The panel is moderated by KTTH Host David Boze, and features KTTH afternoon host and New York Times bestselling author Ben Shapiro; syndicated host and New York Times bestselling author Michael Medved; KIRO Radio's Dave Ross; and Washington Ceasefire President and activist Ralph Fascitelli.

"There is a conflict between honoring the Second Amendment rights of Washingtonians and tackling the issue of needless gun violence. Without examining both sides of the issue, I'm not sure we can find any solutions," said KTTH AM 770 Program Director, Jason Antebi. "It's my hope that this panel can provide us all with meaningful information that and find common ground among folks on either side of this issue."

The "AM 770 KTTH Freedom Series: Guns in America" is the third in a series of debates designed to encourage civil but vigorous discussion of important issues facing Western Washington. Previously, the Freedom Series tackled the $15 minimum wage, and the topic of religious freedom.

Moderator:

David Boze hosts The David Boze Morning Show weekdays from 6 to 9 a.m. on KTTH AM 770. Troubled by the apathy in local politics, David ran for the State Senate at the age of 19, which reportedly made him the youngest candidate for the State Senate in Washington history. After college, he became a research analyst for The Olympian and had freelance columns published in other local newspapers including The News Tribune.

Expert Panelists:

Ben Shapiro is a new addition to the KTTH AM 770 lineup, heard weekday afternoons from 3 to 6 p.m. Shapiro was named to “Talkers’ Heavy Hundred” list of top U.S. radio shows after spending two years at KRLA in Los Angeles. A Harvard law graduate, Shapiro is also a New York Times bestselling author and a frequent contributor to FOX News and CNN.

Michael Medved hosts the nationally syndicated Michael Medved Show weekdays from Noon to 3 p.m. on KTTH AM 770. His daily three-hour show reaches 200 stations across the country and an audience of 4.7 million, placing him on the Talkers Magazine list of the top ten political talk shows in the United States. Michael’s columns on politics and media appear regularly in the Wall Street Journal, The Daily Beast and USA Today, where he is a member of the Board of Contributors.

Dave Ross hosts of Seattle’s Morning News on KIRO Radio 97.3 FM where he has worked since 1978. Ross has won the national Edward R. Murrow Award for writing five times. In 1992 he won an Emmy Award for writing on KIRO-TV. He also writes and produces a nationally-syndicated daily news commentary for the CBS Radio Network.

Ralph Fascitelli is the President of “Washington CeaseFire!”, a statewide organization dedicated to reducing gun violence. The organization was formed in 1983 by citizens who had been directly affected by gun violence. From a small group meeting in private homes, it has grown to an organization with more than 5,000 members across the state.
