BOBBY BONES AND THE RAGING IDIOTS CLOSE IN ON $600,000 RAISED FOR CHARITY WITH SOLD-OUT CONERTS IN ALBUQUERQUE AND EL PASO

LOS ANGELES, October 28, 2014 – This past weekend, Bobby Bones and The Raging Idiots played two sold-out benefit concerts in Albuquerque, N.M. and El Paso, Texas, raising their total charitable donations to nearly $600,000.

On October 24, the band played to a packed house with special guest Country music singer/songwriter/guitarist Lindsay Ell at the Isleta Resort & Casino in Albuquerque. Presented by BIG I 107.9, the concert benefitted Watermelon Mountain Ranch, New Mexico's largest no-kill animal shelter. The band then played a special show for U.S. soldiers at Fort Bliss in El Paso on October 25, followed by a concert for 96.3 KHEY Country at the Sunland Park Casino, which benefitted Wounded Warriors Project, a non-profit organization whose mission is to honor and empower wounded soldiers and their families.
