Pittsburgh, Pa. – September 16, 2013 – Clear Channel Communities™, the community engagement brand of Clear Channel Media and Entertainment, and 102.5 WDVE today announced that the sixth annual 'DVE Rocks for Children's Radiothon raised $566,784 for Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC. 'DVE Rocks for Children's Radiothon was held over the last three days with the help of donations from 3,929 listeners and sponsors.

Throughout the three-day event WDVE broadcasted live from the Eat'n Park Atrium at Children's Hospital and listeners heard inspirational stories from kids undergoing treatment and care at Children's. Donations from the event will provide the highest quality, individualized care for children when they need it most. Listeners signed up to become 'DVE Rock Stars by making a monthly donation at a minimum of $10. 'DVE Rock Stars received a special Rock Star welcome packet; recognition on the Children's Hospital online donor list; insider information about Children's Hospital and Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh Foundation volunteer opportunities; invitations to special Foundation events; and the satisfaction of knowing that their gift brings life-saving, innovative care to Children's patients.

"We are thrilled that WDVE raised more than $566,784 for Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh," said Tim McAleer, Market Manager for Clear Channel Media and Entertainment Pittsburgh. "Our success is due solely to the generosity of 'DVE listeners. A huge thank you to all who helped us surpass our fundraising goal."
