WFUV Releases FUV Live 17 Benefit CD
Compilation Features Conor Oberst, Neko Case, Nick Lowe, and 14 More;
Fall Membership Drive to Spotlight Great Live Albums

New York, NY – For the 17th consecutive year WFUV (90.7 FM/wfuv.org) has released an album of exclusive live performances recorded in the station’s fabled Studio A. The 17 artists on FUV Live 17 hail from far away as London (AlunaGeorge, Nick Lowe, and Jungle), Australia (Courtney Barnett), Seattle (The Head and The Heart), and Oakland (tUnE-yArDs) and as close as Philadelphia (Man Man and The War on Drugs), New Jersey (Real Estate), and Brooklyn (Lake Street Dive).

FUV Live 17 is available with contributions of $100 and more during the station’s fall membership drive, which begins on Sunday, October 5, or online immediately. By far WFUV’s most popular thank you gifts, FUV Live CDs go on to become collector’s items. From Monday, October 6, through Friday, October 10, the membership drive will spotlight great live albums, ranging from classics like Crosby Stills, Nash & Young’s *Four Way Street and James Brown’s *Live at the Apollo to Gomez’s *Out West and Adele’s *Live at Albert Hall.

“The CD really reflects one of the ways music discovery works at WFUV,” said Program Director and FUV Live 17 producer Rita Houston. “We’re able to bring exciting newer talent like Phox, Wild Feathers, and Lake Street Dive into the studio and capture the energy and immediacy of their live performances. Plus, the videos we post of those performances add a whole other dimension to the listening experience, both with new artists and long-time favorites like Conor Oberst, Neko Case, and Nick Lowe.”
