Fund will focus on youth hunger and education

CHICAGO, March 27, 2014— WGN Radio and the Robert R. McCormick Foundation announced today that Tuesday, April 1st will mark the launch of the 2014 Spring Campaign, a campaign of the WGN Neediest Kids Fund, a McCormick Foundation Fund. The campaign will support nonprofit agencies raising money to help at-risk youth gain access to year-round education programs and nutritious meals.

What started as a holiday toy drive by legendary host Wally Phillips in 1969, the WGN Radio Neediest Kids Fund has grown to help at-risk kids stay in school, eat healthy and prepare for their future. Since inception, over $19.2 million has been granted through the WGN Radio Neediest Kids Fund.

The McCormick Foundation will match all gifts raised at 50 cents on the dollar. All administrative costs are paid by the Foundation and WGN Radio, allowing 100 percent of all funds raised, including the match, to be granted directly to nonprofit organizations helping underserved children reach their full potential. The campaign runs through June 30, 2014.
