Legendary athletes Hollis Thomas, Bernie Parent, Coach John Chaney and others to judge burger contest

Philadelphia —May 16, 2014— SportsRadio 94WIP's Glen Macnow will host the "Great Hamburger Hunt" Finale this Saturday, May 17th at 2PM at the Valley Forge Casino Resort in the micro-restaurant area (1160 N 1st Ave., King of Prussia, PA 19406). Macnow has already determined the best spare ribs, cheesesteak, beer, hot sandwich and pizza in the Delaware Valley. Next on his list is to honor the greatest burger.

Since the end of March, Macnow has conducted exhaustive, often indigestion-causing research trying to find the area's best burger. After devouring 40 burgers in 40 days, Glen has narrowed the field to what he considers the best. "Angelo Cataldi told me that I couldn't find a burger as good as some fast-food nonsense he'd tried on the West Coast. So I went out and tried 40. And I discovered some great ones -- high-end burgers at fancy steakhouses, terrific bar burgers and delicious low-cost burger-joint delights. I'll put these burgers up against any in the United States," said Macnow.

The finalists include Rouge, Del Frisco's, Shake Shack, Dog & Bull, Spot Burger, and Billy Burger. Each establishment will compete for the coveted title of Philly's Best Burger. Seven celebrity judges will taste each burger to determine the winner. The celebrity-packed panel of judges includes: Hollis Thomas, former Eagles player and current WIP host; Bernie Parent, former Stanley Cup winning Flyers goalie; John Chaney, legendary Temple basketball coach; Ray Didinger, Pro Football Hall of Famer and WIP host; Angelo Cataldi and Rhea Hughes, WIP morning show hosts; Restaurateur Tony Luke and Macnow himself.

The event is free and open to the public. There will be samples for all attendees to taste free of charge. Guests attending will also serve as judges for a "Listeners Choice Award." Patrons will vote by ballot and one additional establishment will win the "Listeners Choice Award."

WIP is owned and operated by CBS RADIO, one of the largest major-market radio operators in the United States. A division of CBS Corporation, CBS RADIO operates 126 radio stations, the majority of which are in the nation's top 50 markets. CBS RADIO also owns and operates CBS Sports Radio 610, WPHT-AM, WOGL-FM and KYW-AM in Philadelphia.
