

“Beatstock 2008”
The Biggest Dance Concert Event of the Summer is Back!
2 Days - 30,000 People

New York, July 7, 2008 (NYSE: CCU) –The Beat of New York, 103.5fm KTU and Z100, New York’s Hit Music Station, are teaming up to bring the hottest and best dance music to the tri-state area with “ BEATSTOCK 2008.”

Back by popular demand, KTU & Z100 will heat up the summer for two sizzling nights in two states with over 30,000 people - Saturday, August 23rd at Nikon at Jones Beach Theater in Wantagh, NY and Sunday, August 24th at PNC Bank Arts Center in Holmdel, NJ.

Beatstock 2008 star studded lineup includes: Pussycat Dolls, Danity Kane, Chris Willis (featured on David Guetta song "Love Is Gone"), Crystal Waters, September, Basshunter, Ida Corr, Jenna Drey, Amuka, Lucas Prata, Bad Boy Joe, Stuntman, along with freestyle performances from KTU’s own Judy Torres, TKA, Coro, Cynthia, George Lamond, Nancy Martinez and many more. *Artist subject to change. This marks the 11th year for the biggest dance concert in America. Both events are a Vito Bruno Production.

Tickets are on sale now to the general public through www.Ticketmaster.com and Ticketmaster Charge by Phone (201-507-8900, 516-888-9000, 212-307-7171 and 914-454-3388). Ticket prices and limits vary per location.

Additional information on each station including upcoming events and air personalities is available on the Web at www.ktu.com or www.z100.com Keyword: Beatstock.

###

Josefa Paganuzzi
Director of Communications
Clear Channel Radio New York
Z100, WLTW, Power 105.1, Q104.3, WKTU, WALK
Email: josefapaganuzzi@clearchannel.com