

Clear Channel Nashville's The Big 98 WSIX to Host Second Annual Songs & Stories for St. Jude

Star-Studded Country Event to Benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

NASHVILLE, TN – March 19, 2014 – Clear Channel Communities, the community engagement brand of Clear Channel, and WSIX-FM, Nashville's New Country radio station, today announced the second annual Songs & Stories for St. Jude, a live concert and auction to raise funds for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The Big 98 WSIX will host the event on Wednesday, April 9, 2014 at 3rd & Lindsley. Doors will open at 6 p.m., and the opening performance will take the stage at 7:30 p.m.

Concert attendees will experience a special performance from the critically acclaimed band The Raging Idiots, and the ACM Award-winning Bobby Bones Show will host the night's festivities. A silent auction will take place throughout the evening and will feature autographed memorabilia, items donated by Country artists and exclusive Country music experiences.

Songs & Stories for St. Jude will also feature Nashville's biggest songwriters, including Grammy® Award winners Tim Nichols, Luke Laird, Shane McAnally, Hillary Lindsey along with The Warren Brothers, Ashley Gorley, Chris DeStefano, Victoria Shaw and Cary Barlowe. The Country songwriters will share personal insight behind their successful songs, plus inspirational stories about children undergoing treatment and care at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

"The Big 98 WSIX is committed to supporting St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and the patients it serves in the Nashville community," said Amy Paige, midday on-air personality for WSIX-FM. "Through WSIX-FM events like Songs & Stories for St. Jude, GUITAR-B-QUE and Country Cares for St. Jude Kids, we continue to raise funds to support the hospital's cutting-edge research and lifesaving treatment programs."

In its inaugural year, Songs & Stories for St. Jude raised over $8,000, and over the last 25 years WSIX-FM has raised $5 million to support St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Country fans can buy tickets and learn more about the event at www.wsix.com/pages/songsandstories.html.
