"Our lineup features a full representation of DC101 and the amazing music fans we serve," said James Howard, DC101's Program Director. "We can't wait to celebrate the many sounds of our generations of Alternative Rock Fans in the DC Area."

Headlining Kerfuffle 2016, blink-182, is one of the most influential rock bands of the past two decades. The band exploded on the scene in the 90's and early 2000's, with their pop-punk sound. Although they had earlier success, their ground-breaking release of the album, Enema of the State, featured Alternative Rock hits "What's My Age Again?" "All the Small Things," and "Adam's Song." The success continued on future albums with hits including "The Rock Show," "Feeling This," "I Miss You," "Up All Night," and more. 2016 marks a new lineup for the band and new music set for release this month. Also featured on the Kerfuffle stage will be Silversun Pickups. The Cali quartet are enjoying the success of their current album, Better Nature, featuring the hit single "Nightlight." Cold War Kids continue the California love on the Kerfuffle stage. After a few years on the music scene, the band achieved their first number one Alternative Rock single last year with "First." Punk Rock vets, Violent Femmes, are sure to get the Kerfuffle crowd moving with their classic cult hits "Blister in the Sun," "Add It Up" and more. Rounding out the Kerfuffle 2016 lineup are Joywave, The Strumbellas, and Bear Hands.

DC101 is proud to partner with the following sponsors on Kerfuffle 2016: Commuter Connection's Guaranteed Ride Home Program, Maryland LIVE! Casino, Antwerpen Automotive, and Mattress Warehouse™.

About Merriweather Post Pavilion:

Merriweather Post Pavilion is one of the world's most beautiful and storied amphitheatres – nestled in 40 acres of forest, smack between Washington, D.C. and Baltimore. If the backstage walls could talk, they'd echo Roger Daltrey and Robert Plant trading some wicked stories about when The Who and Led Zeppelin played there in the '70s. Originally built to be the home of the National Symphony Orchestra, Merriweather was designed by the renowned architect Frank Gehry, who is best known for defying architectural conventions. The natural outdoor setting is one that can't be matched. The fantastic sound system and large video screens make the amphitheatre a favorite for bands and fans. Inspired by troubadour and environmentalist Jack Johnson, Merriweather implements a range of efforts to protect the environment, including installing solar panels that power the house lights, composting and building new structures using Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design standards. Every year the beloved concert venue sets out to improve. Recent enhancements include building an enormous kitchen that prepares the most delectable cuisines from all over the world, a Music Pinball Arcade, award-winning sculptures and the tripling of restroom facilities. Merriweather is music, but so much more. It's a gorgeous walk in the park.
