iHeartMedia New York and the Rock & Roll Fantasy Camp To Host “Q104.3’s Backstage Pass” Featuring Wings

Virtual Event will be Presented by the New York Alliance Against Insurance Fraud and Will Benefit The National Independent Venue Association

WHAT: iHeartMedia New York’s Q104.3 and the Rock & Roll Fantasy Camp will host “Q104.3’s Backstage Pass,” a virtual live event with Laurence Juber and Denny Seiwell celebrating the golden anniversary of the band Wings that will benefit the National Independent Venue Association. The event will take place on April 17 at 12pm EST via zoom and will be hosted by Q104.3’s on-air personality Ken Dashow. The event will be presented by New York Alliance Against Insurance Fraud (NYAAIF).

$1.00 of each ticket sold for “Q104.3’s Backstage Pass” will be donated to the National Independent Venue Association and NYAAIF will match all donations. The National Independent Venue Association is an American organization of independent music venues, independent promoters and festivals pursuing federal support such as business recovery grants and tax relief in the wake of COVID-19’s devastating effect on the live entertainment industry.

Listeners interested in watching the conversations about the musical legacy of Wings can purchase a ticket on the station’s website.

WHEN: April 17, 2021 at 12pm ET.

LISTEN: Fans can watch the event via zoom. The zoom link and additional information will be available to listeners upon ticket purchase.
