

WEEZER, CAKE, GARBAGE, THE BRAVERY AND CHEVELLE
AMONG ARTISTS SLATED FOR 99X DOWNTOWN ROCKS @ UNDERGROUND ATLANTA

*99X's FREE summer concert series in Atlanta.
Every Saturday July 9 to August 13, 2005, from 6 to 11 p.m.*

Atlanta, Georgia (June 28, 2005) – 99X Everything Alternative has assembled a stellar lineup for its free summer concert series in Downtown Atlanta. Weezer, Cake, The Bravery, Chevelle, Ben Folds, Garbage, The Dead 60's, Stereophonics and Caesars are among the artists that will perform for six Saturday nights, July 9 through August 13 at Underground Atlanta.

The station that has provided over 1 million music fans with free live entertainment since 2001 will continue its mission this summer with 99X Downtown Rocks @ Underground Atlanta. Each Saturday night concert will kick off with one of 99X's favorite local artists like Second Shift whose call and response rock is set to change peoples' perceptions of the kind of music coming out of Atlanta. After getting the crowd warmed up, music fans will enjoy dynamic sets from some of the biggest names heard on 99X today. Highlights include visits from UK alternative rock stars Stereophonics and The Bravery, a NYC band known for their deep seeded allegiance to the punk movement. In addition to the up-and-coming stars is a strong veteran line up featuring Sacramento bred Cake and the deadpan stylings of vocalist John McCrea- now 5 albums strong. Critically acclaimed geek rock gods Weezer and supercharged sexy pop rockers Garbage will also be performing.

ABOUT WNNX – 99X EVERYTHING ALTERNATIVE:

99X is viewed nationally as one of the top three tastemakers among the country's alternative radio stations, being the first to expose new music and break bands. 99X has produced and executed some of the biggest concerts and events in Atlanta since its inception in 1992. 99X created Atlanta's first free summer concerts in 2001 with "On The Bricks," followed by 2002's "Downtown Rocks" and "The Big Rock" in 2003. Thousands attended "Big Day Out" the outdoor summer concerts, the annual Halloween Brouhaha, the annual "Mistle Toe Jam" Christmas concert and more recent sell-out successes like the Dunwoody Beer Festival and the 99X "Sinners Ball" Mardi Gras bash. The station is also a leader in direct marketing with over 450,000 registered members and is one of the most promotionally active stations in Atlanta, on the streets seven days a week. Cause marketing has been a key element for 99X as it has raised over $1,000,000 for Atlanta charities over the past ten years. The commitment has grown with the establishment of the "I Am 99X Foundation," a non-profit fund created to support local charities.
