

Personality Photos & Logos available at:
<http://stylesheet.957thegame.com>

For Immediate Release
November 9, 2012

1st United Services Credit Union & 95.7 The GAME Make Check Donation to Alameda County Community Food Bank for 2012 Oakland Athletics Homeruns For Hunger Campaign

Oakland, CA – 95.7 The GAME (KGMZ-FM), The Bay Area’s New Sound For Sports, in conjunction with 1st United Services Credit Union, proudly donated $9,750 to the Alameda County Community Food Bank as part of the 2012 Homeruns for Hunger program on the flagship home of the Oakland Athletics.

For every homerun hit during the regular season by the Athletics, 1st United Services Credit Union pledged to donate $50 to the Alameda County Community Food Bank. The Athletics finished the regular season with 195 homeruns.

95.7 The GAME’s Dan Dibley, co-host of Rise Guys (weekday mornings 6:00 - 10:00am), along with officials from 1st United Services Credit Union, presented the Alameda County Community Food Bank with the check on Thursday, November 8, 2012 (picture attached).

For 80 years, 1st United Services Credit Union has been committed to providing simpler, faster, friendlier financial services.

With its commitment to live and local programming, 95.7 The GAME, in just 14 months, has put together the best lineup in Bay Area radio:

- 6:00 am-10:00 am The Rise Guys: Whitey Gleason, Mark Kreidler, and Dan Dibley
- 10:00 am-12:00 pm The Pulse with Chris Townsend and Matt Steinmetz
- 12:00-3:00 pm The Wheelhouse with John Lund & Greg Papa
- 3:00 pm-7:00 pm The Drive with Brandon Tierney & Ric Bucher

95.7 The GAME is the largest radio market FM Sports Station in California.

JOSH PEARLMAN
ENTERCOM SAN FRANCISCO
☎: 805-252-5711 | ✉: jpearlman@entercom.com

