Top to bottom this year is the best line-up in the history of 10 Man Jam. Every one of these superstars answered the call to come help The Bull raise money for The Lone Survivor Foundation” said, Bruce Logan, VP of Programming for 100.3 The Bull.

An evening filled with this caliber of stardom, in an intimate venue such as House of Blues, gives fans and listeners an experience to be forever remembered. Lucky attendees will also be offered a silent and live auction filled with autographed artist memorabilia to bid on and take home. All proceeds benefit the Lone Survivor Foundation. The Lone Survivor Foundation restores, empowers, and renews hope for our wounded service members and their families through health, wellness, and therapeutic support. The Foundation continues to help America's wounded service members and their families adjust to the effects of their experiences and help them transition into what may be looked at as their 'new normal' – providing an understanding and acceptance of who they are as a person, a family, and a community.

Tickets for the concert cannot be bought; the only way to experience this incredible show is to win them by listening to 100.3 The Bull. Keep listening to Houston’s Country Concert Station and make sure your radio dial is set to 100.3 The Bull!
