3rd Annual 80's Throwback Party to Benefit Brighton Recovery Center for Women

Presented by Q102's Katie Walters and Fort Thomas Matters

The Highland Country Club in Fort Thomas will host the 3rd Annual 80's Throwback Party to benefit the Brighton Recovery Center for Women, on Saturday, February 6th, 2016, 8pm-1am.

"We transform the Highland Country Club into an 80's flashback in time...decorations, lights, fog machine, we do it all," says Katie Walters. "This is the only party that directly benefits Brighton Recovery Center for Women. These are mothers, sisters, daughters, and friends who are all voluntarily trying to change their lives." The Brighton Recovery Center for Women is the most comprehensive program in the area to help combat the heroin scourge in Greater Cincinnati/NKY. Eighty percent of the 100-plus beds are taken by women ages 18-50 that are reliant on heroin.

Q102's Mark McFadden, will be the celebrity DJ this year. It will be an 80's Throwback to the years when he deejayed at The Conservatory, Waterfront, and Glass Menagerie. McFadden is going to time warp back to the 80s and allow the party-goers to relive those memories for one more night.

In addition to the music and dancing there will be a food, free parking, and 80's raffle items which include tickets to Journey, Heart/Joan Jett/Cheap Trick, and Great White/LA Guns.

Tickets are only $25 and can be purchased at brightoncenter.com. "Even if you can't attend the party, you can still donate to the Brighton Recovery Center for Women by purchasing a ticket. I purposefully leave the ticket price low so it affordable for everyone," adds Walters.

Special thanks to Q102, Mix94.9, Riverbend Music Center, Bogart's, Hamilton Digital, Highland Country Club.
